2016-12-23 13:53 - Kizuna "Technically, it is no point. Combat operations are absurd, the background music is terrible, the difficulty is definitely the most complicated and it's just easy to play around without any challenges. Also, there's no fun to it. The enemies are usually insanely powerful and the standard gear just falls apart after a while. Hence, the game has no point. Also, it is really boring. And it's frustrating. The average player will cry.
